

Dear Friend,

Plans for our 2014 fundraiser, Barrington Ship to Shore, are well underway. On Saturday, September 27, 2014 from 5-8 pm the Barrington Preservation Society will host a cocktail party at the Barrington Yacht Club, catered by Guy Abelson Events. The event will focus on Barrington's rich maritime history, those who make their living on the water and those who merely dream of it. Egbert, the Buzzards Bay scallop boat built in 1885 and stranded on top of pilings in the 1938 hurricane, will be welcoming visitors at the Yacht Club dock and offering a day sail in the silent auction. As well as numerous other silent auction items, we will have vintage photographs, boat models and artifacts on display.

The evening is planned as a fundraiser for the Barrington Preservation Society, and proceeds will support our museum and educational programs. We hope you will join us as a patron by completing the form below with your check payable to Barrington Preservation Society. For more information, contact Jane Scola at jascola@cox.net

Thank you in advance for supporting this wonderful evening celebrating Barrington's long connection to the waterfront.

Cordially,

Jean Douglas and Maureen Soutter, BPS Event chairs
